Cultivating the Sacred Connection Between the Earth and Its People

Summer Camp Youth Leadership Internship

What is the Earth & Spirit Center?

The Earth & Spirit Center is an interfaith spirituality center founded on the conviction that the Earth and all its inhabitants form a single, sacred community. Our mission is to restore the sacred connections between the Earth and its people. Specifically, we aim to foster healthy, compassionate relationships with one's inner life, with others, and with the Earth as a whole.

What is Camp Odyssey?

Camp Odyssey is a program of the Earth & Spirit Center for children (Grade 1-Grade 6). The goal of the camp is to help children develop a loving connection to Earth, build their capacity for social compassion, and explore mindfulness practices. During camp, children engage in art projects, music, gardening, cooking, yoga and other activities.

What does a Summer Camp Youth Leadership Intern do?

Summer Camp Youth Leadership Interns support Camp Odyssey. Interns provide critical leadership functions of the camp that include: peer mentorship with camp volunteers, working with children, coordinating camp social media and communications, etc.
